

Student Organizations – Service Unit Outcomes

Service Unit Purpose:

The purpose of student organizations is to provide ways in which students can interact in a non-formal atmosphere, and allow students to strengthen their leadership and communications skills. Student organizations and activities exist to enhance and support the academic experience. They also provide opportunities for students to voice their comments and suggestions as well as to make positive contributions to both the community and the institution.

Service Unit Outcomes:

1. Student organizations will be designed to enrich the students' educational experience through social and physical development and enhance the academic mission.
2. Student organizations and clubs will increase membership at all locations. Based on students' feedback, student organizations will seek new ways to promote cultural, social, and civic well-being.
3. Organizations and activities will continue to be a vital part of the college's commitment to the total development of the individual student.
4. Student groups will provide student outreach opportunities that will contribute to building connections that benefit the campus and local communities.
